Dear Parent/Carer

I am offering your son/daughter the opportunity to attend an excellent and exciting workshop on Wednesday 12th October between 10am and Middyday. This workshop is run by the Royal Albert Memorial Museum (RAMM) and it is centred around the Seaton Down Hoard discovery – 22, 000 Roman coins, one of the largest finds in Europe! During the workshop, pupils will discover Roman Devon through the Seaton Down Hoard, they will think about why the hoard was buried and what happened when it was found, they will find out how coins were made and what they tell us about Roman life, and they will compare Devon's Roman landscape with the present day.

I need your permission for your child to attend this workshop as they will miss a part of lesson 2 and lesson 3 if they are to attend.

If you would like your child to take part in this opportunity please could you complete the below tear-off slip and return it to me by Friday 7th October 2016.

Yours sincerely
